Mayor Peduto:

Attached is a letter confirming the telephone conversation you had with Jeffrey Romoff this afternoon. The original will follow by mail unless you would like a signed copy hand-delivered.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Re: Community Support

Dear Mayor Peduto:

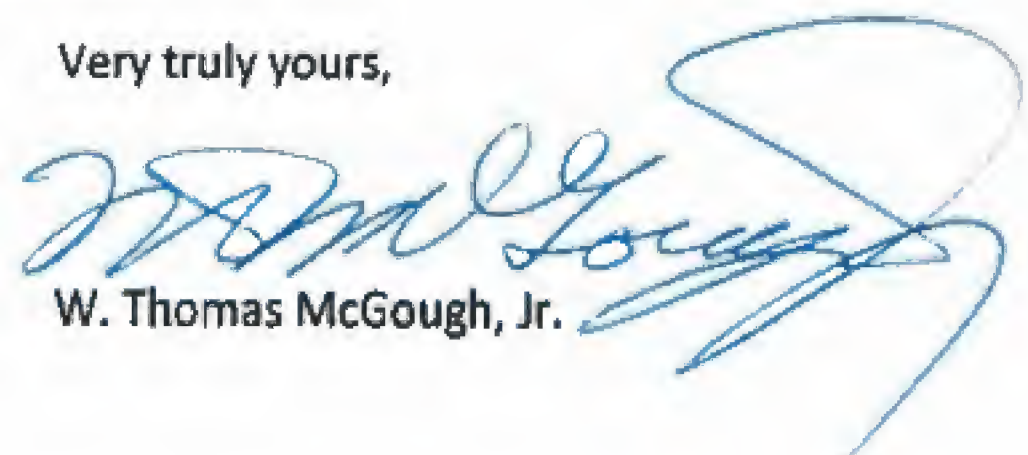

I am writing to confirm, as you discussed today with Jeffrey Romoff, UPMC's deep commitment to the health, success and prosperity of the City of Pittsburgh and of all of its residents. As evidence of that commitment we would draw your attention to:

- UPMC's decision in 2008 to rescue Mercy Hospital from its financial distress and rebuild it as an important part of the community's healthcare fabric, especially for the City's most needy and vulnerable populations. Our selection of the UPMC Mercy campus for the proposed Vision Institute, a facility that could be located almost anywhere within UPMC's footprint, was made in large part to assure the future of that vital community asset;
- UPMC's unparalleled commitment of $100 million to the Pittsburgh Promise to provide scholarships to students in the Pittsburgh Public Schools; and
- UPMC's early and continuing participation in and support for your One PGH initiative, which will ultimately address such critical community needs as affordable housing, clean air and water, and pre-K education.

We very much look forward to continuing the partnerships we have forged in these and other matters.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Very truly yours,

W. Thomas McGough, Jr.
